We relive the past in pictures and words; for the moment yesterday becomes today.* This year is in several respects a year of transition: for seniors, college and vocations lie ahead; for undergraduates, the departure from a tradition — the present Roger Ludlowe; for the school itself, a shedding of its colorful and fruitful past for a modern and promising future. In this FAIRFIELDIANA we, the staff, have attempted to portray the last four years in respect to the entire history of Roger Ludlowe High School.

FAIRFIELDIANA

1963

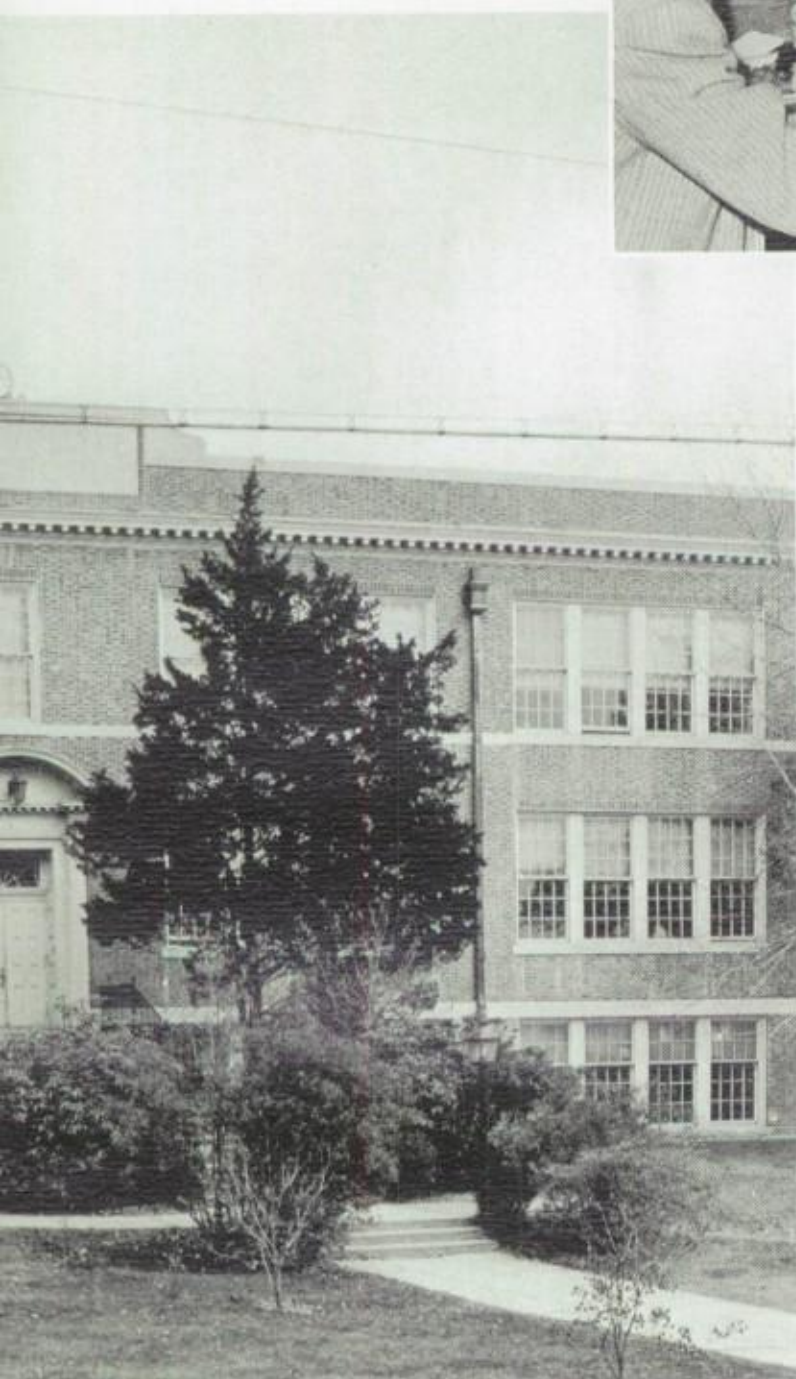

ROGER LUDLOWE HIGH SCHOOL

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

DEDICATION

In all the years of Roger Ludlowe High School, many students have benefited from the knowledge, guidance, inspiration, and tireless devotion of their faculty. Therefore, in this year of transition, it is with a profound sense of respect, admiration, and humility that we, the class of 1963, dedicate our FAIRFIELDIANA to all teachers, past and present, who have given so freely of themselves.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

At the end of our Junior year, the National Honor Society drew into its membership two students from our class. However, this year the society enlarged itself quite admirably. On March 14, Andrew Warde's N.H.S. joined with Ludlowe's in the induction of this year's members at the traditional candle lighting ceremony. Members for this society are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, leadership and service.

I would like to thank all of you, the people of Roger Ludlowe, as much as I can. You have given me so many opportunities to learn about the Americans, and to help you to understand better the people of my little country in Europe.

Today it is so important that people know the truth about their foreign neighbors, so that they may be able to understand them. There are too many wrong ideas on all sides. Each day I have learned something that has helped me to understand Americans, and through the school and my family, I have gotten to know and like your people for what they are and what they stand for.

There is no way for me to thank all of you enough for what you have done for me. I can only hope that you have become more aware, as I have, of the importance of all peoples' understanding one another.

Yours always,
Margrit Scherrer

THE

FOX

THE FOX

The Fox staff has lived through another hectic year, and how they managed this will long remain a great mystery. Close calls with deadlines, lost copy, and temperamental typewriters helped make this a banner year for editorial headaches. As any uninitiated visitor to the "Fox Hole" will verify, every day at 2:14 the office of Ludlowe's newspaper was a scene of cheerful chaos. The work, however, had a way of getting done, and with the assistance of some liberties with established speed limits, then finished products made the printers on schedule.

Seeping out through the chinks in the walls of the Fox Hole were many choice tidbits which will serve to illustrate the modus operandi within: "Who's going to distribute papers this time?" . . . "Go on down to the Wolf Den for some sports pictures" . . . "Anybody have a key?" . . . "We've just got to get more ads!" . . . "Get out of the sink, it's only a deadline!"

But everyone would certainly agree that it's been a good year for the Fox, and that all enjoyed themselves while learning something about the newspaper business.

"Let's see . . . If there are 900 students and 300 Foxes . . .!"

The Fox staff makes history by being only two weeks late for a deadline!

ATHENIAN

Another year, and another Athenian staff breathes a sigh of relief. The response has been gratifying and with the enthusiasm of the student body, we feel that we have advanced at least one step further toward our goal of creating a publication of major importance at Ludlowe.

Along with the struggle of presenting the customary Athenian to the school, the staff has been enthusiastically looking into the prospect of a relatively new magazine, including a new format. Better printing has been another objective.

The staff thanks Miss Kelly for her unselfish guidance and help, and Mrs. Dunlap and the typing department for their unfailing assistance.

FRENCH CLUB

"Le cercle francais" has grown this year, both in number and the range of activities at the monthly meetings. The officers elected at the opening meeting were: Gail Archambault, president; John Suter, vice-president; Lynn Wheeler, treasurer; and Van Hall, secretary. Miss Ackerman served as faculty advisor.

High points of the year were the annual "Noël" party and a trip to New York City on February 3 to see two French plays, Orphee by Jean Cocteau and L'Apollon de Bellac by Jean Giroudoux. Those who went also enjoyed genuine French cuisine at "La Potiniere Restaurant."

Other activities enjoyed by the members were the movie "Topaze" and various French speakers. Members of the club, mostly members of French classes cont. 2, 3, 4, and 5, found all the meetings to be a lot of fun as well as interesting.

GERMAN CLUB

Guten Tag! This has been an interesting and active year for the German Club, with a varied program of German games, films, and guest speakers. With the addition of the Freshman German Club from Mill Plain, the club grew to an unprecedented size. In addition, the German Club was fortunate in having Margrit Scherrer, the exchange student from Switzerland, as a member and, on several occasions, as a speaker. Miss Wright, as advisor, aided the officers in presenting this year's interesting and varied program to the club.

SPANISH CLUB

This has been an active and interesting year for the Spanish Club. The officers were: Jean Monroe, president; Jorge Guerra, vice-president; Evelyn Johnson, secretary; and Marge Saunders, treasurer. The high point of the year was the annual Christmas party, with the traditional pinatas, as well as records, food, and a lot of fun. The first issue of our Spanish newspaper came out on February 28, the end-product of a lot of work for all concerned.

Plans are made for a trip to New York in April to visit the United Nations and perhaps see a Broadway play.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to develop an interest in the teaching profession. This is accomplished mainly through a well-planned activity calendar. One of the valuable opportunities offered is the practice teaching and observation program, which is carried on in the Fairfield elementary and junior high schools.

The F.T.A. was led by faculty advisors Miss Banks, Mrs. Carri, Mrs. Way, and Miss Sharp and by officers Margaret McCarty, Martha Beresky, Biffie Grottle, Pat Donovan, Bonnie Berecz, Kathy Healey, and Sue Ostrosky.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Roger Ludlowe's Future Nurses' Club has grown, with forty-three girls at present, and is one of the school's most active clubs — both within the school and the community. A chartered member of the National League for Nursing, the club interests many girls in nursing careers, helping to provide for the country's growing need for qualified nurses.

The club's various activities, including monthly meetings, often with movies and guest speakers from the field, and trips to nearby hospitals, are all aimed at giving its members an insight into the duties and responsibilities of nurses. Projects, such as Health Room Aides and volunteer service in hospitals and with the Red Cross, provide practical experience for the Future Nurses.

This year for the first time, the Future Nurses' Club is fortunate in being able to offer a scholarship to a senior who is exceptionally qualified and intends to enter a career in nursing.

THE BAND

The Roger Ludlowe Debate Club, dedicated to promoting and winning debates, eating refreshments afterward and collecting trophies, has at times been somewhat frustrated this year (except in eating refreshments, that is). However as they approach the end of a long season, the club is able to boast of first place in the Fairfield County Debate League and a record of ten wins and six losses overall. This year the Debate Club plans to institute another "first" by inviting the other thirteen schools of the league to participate in the "First Annual Ludlowe Tournament." Miss Wasko, faculty advisor, and Mark Lyon, president, have been primarily responsible for the leadership during this successful season.

ACADEMICS

our

"Caesar bonus vir est. Pugnat multa bella" . . . Latin II struggles through Caesar's Gallic Wars.

Miss Wright's German II class takes time out to give the cameraman a schmile.

DEPARTMENTS

Mrs. Moris gives her students a laugh and some culture by demonstrating the fundamentals of the Bosa Nova.

"Pas de classe aujourd'hui, Mademoiselle Shiner."

HISTORY

Mrs. Altman is one of those rare persons who can find something amusing in Cicero's orations.

The French Club adds to its treasury by gambling on the side.

ENGLISH

Mr. Connelly's fifth period class finds a short story in Literary Cavalcade interesting.

Mrs. Arbo's English IV forgets the art of serious study after mid-years.

Mrs. Friedman relaxes (in the last row) from the tedious teaching routine by letting one of her juniors take over.

"But Miss Kelly, I like Connecticut."

Mrs. Roche's English IV class puts the finishing touches on their criticisms of the three week college period.

MATHEMATICS

Of course there are those who find Miss Reid's math class amusing.

Mr. Angelosante tells his fourth period class: "No more pi until after lunch!"

"But Mrs. Carrie my parallel lines intersect."

The corn grows green in Mr. Swett's A.P.P. I class.

Mr. Whittaker's A.P.P.wizards . . . trying to look alert.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Bill Marks lectures to his P.A.D. class on the Common Market.

Miss Tansey entertains her sixth period history class with a brief summation of The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich.

Mr. Newman speaks to Mr. Marlin's U.S. History class on the F.B.I.

"What a bunch of blundering idiots."

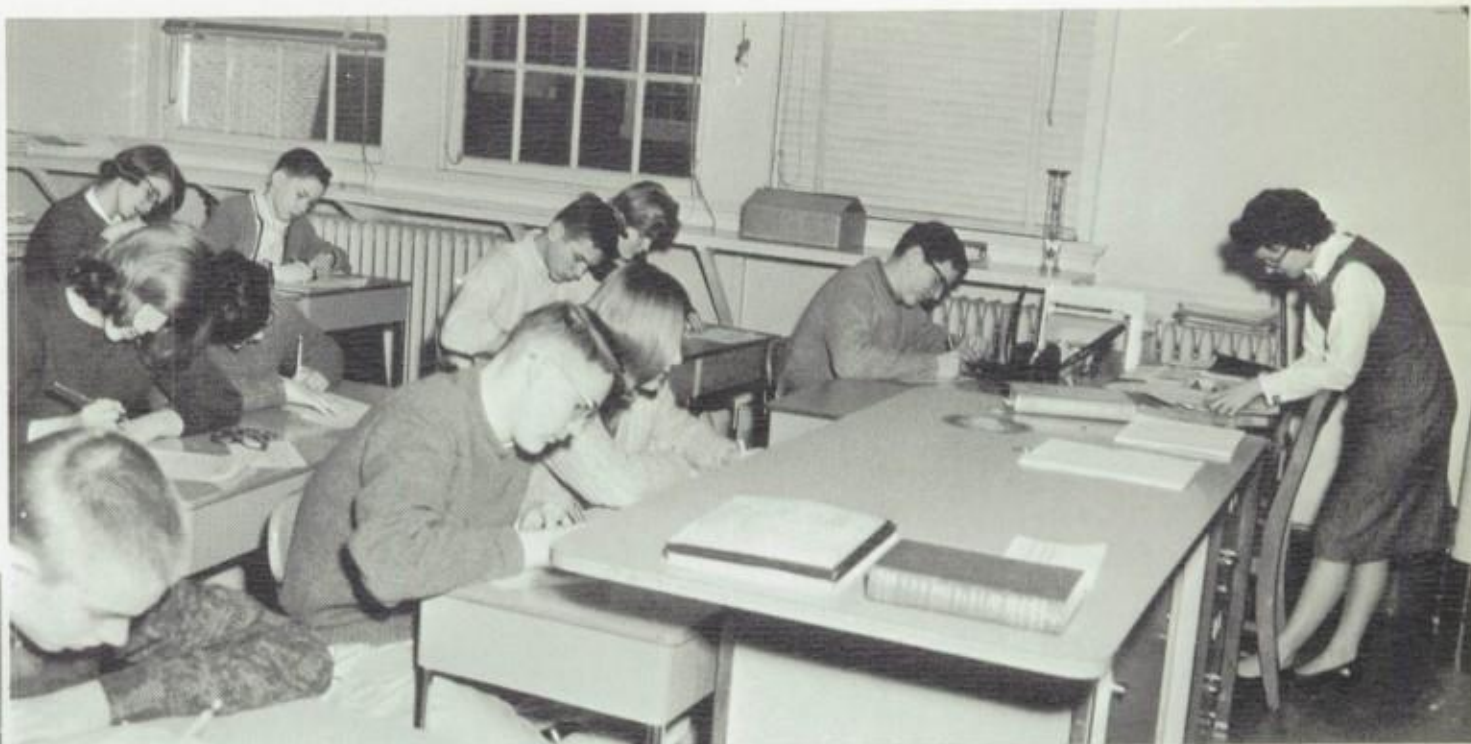

Mr. Strauss' sixth period class prepares for a movie on China.

SCIENCE

"Let's see . . . the paramecium has cilia, the amoeba has pseudopods . . . or does the paramecium have pseudo . . ."

"OK., Mark, leave the girl alone."

Mr. Poluhowich's fourth period class uses its twenty-two minute study for studying?!?

Chemistry students period two patiently await Mr. Jackson's spelling of Desoxyribonucleic Acid.

"Every student needs at least eight hours of sleep . . . but not in class."

BUSINESS

Bookkeeping girls "summing things up" with a test on Friday.

Mrs. Dunlap gives the business girls a few tips on office procedure.

Mrs. Lippman's fifth period shorthand class listens to a guest speaker.

Pat Raveis and Jo-Ann Yranski prepare for Business Observation Week.

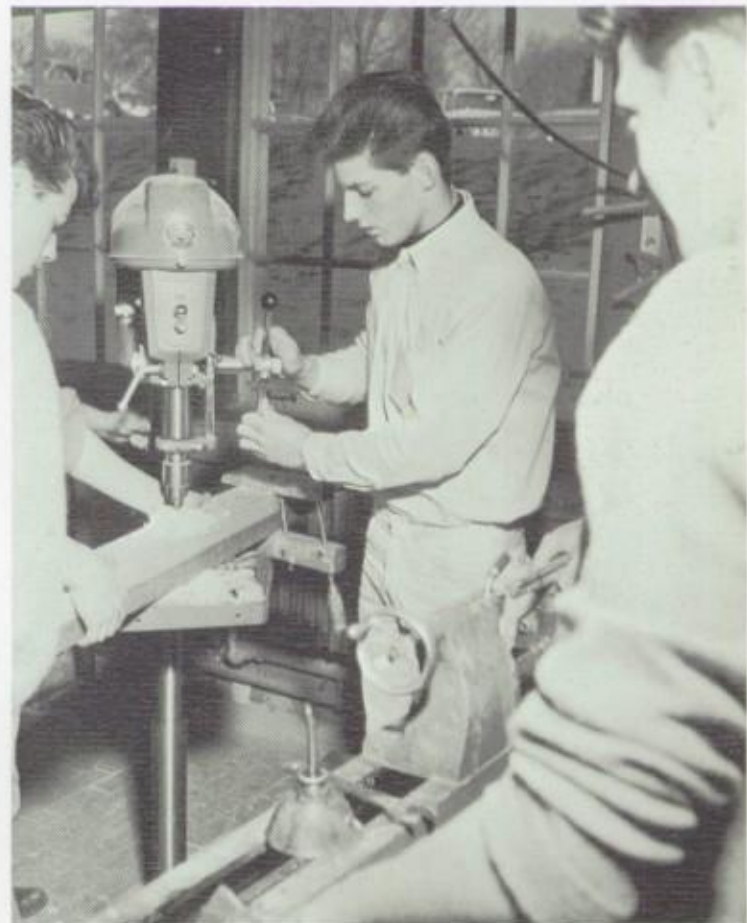

Mrs. MacPhee breaks her class of the hunt and peck method.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

"One more line like that and I'll take your ruler away!"

The boys in Woodworking Shop put the finishing touches on their latest projects.

Al Delaney prepares one of the beams for the new Roger Ludlowe.

Graham Ardell, Roger Homa, Ray Zeglen and Frank Auer get down to brass tacks in Metal Shop.

The Electronics class comes up with some shocking results.

CULTURAL TRAINING

Mr. Dunbar gives the band a few pointers on the reading of music.

Ludlowe's future Picassos.

The instructions say . . .

you can turn him on by pushing the button . . .

and you can shut him off by pulling the string.

"But Mr. Dunbar, I can't sing, it's first period!"

HOME ECONOMICS and

Margie Hopkins demonstrates Miss Small's one, two, three, break routine.

The Home Economics girls abandon the stoves to take a test.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Don't sweat the Small stuff!

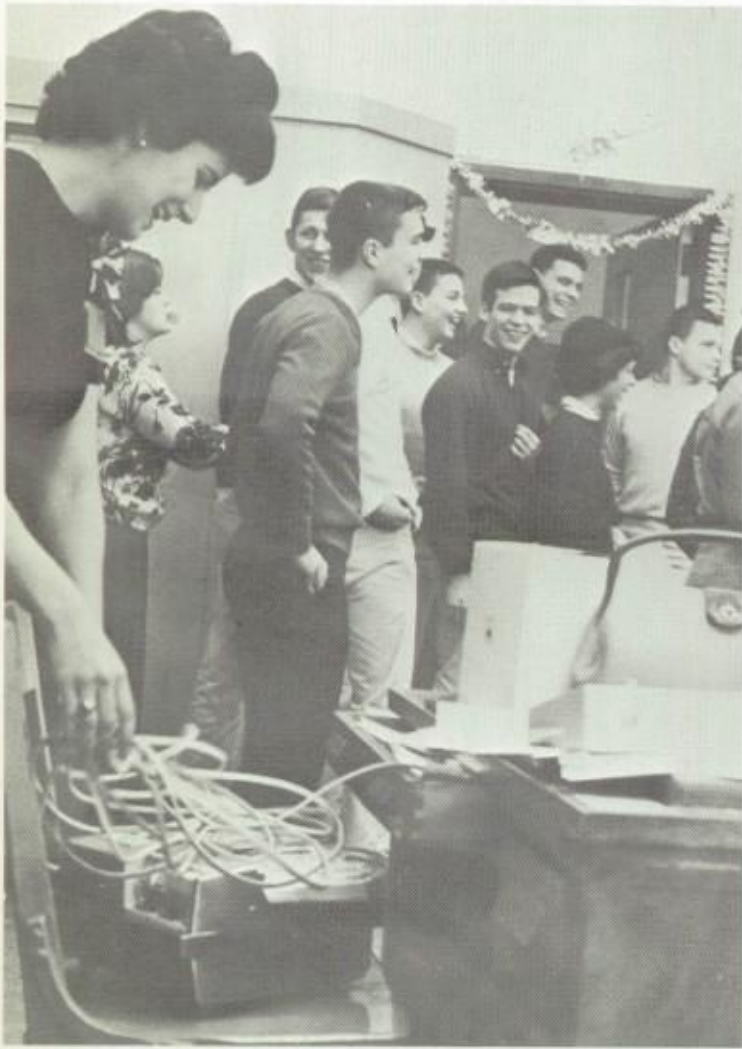

Mr. Carta gives instructions in Yoga.

"... 1001, 1002, 1003 ..."

WHO CARES IF YOU GRADUATE?

YOU DO, OF COURSE. Your parents, too, and your friends. Your teachers who have dedicated themselves to working with you and your classmates. To that list we'd like to suggest you add the name of General Electric.

For at General Electric we know well that our future is linked to yours and to that of your fellow graduates throughout the United States. A successful business needs more and more skills, better and better educated employees. So we care, too!

We care enough to try to help in the staggering task of educating today's young people. To that end General Electric matches the gifts of its employees to their colleges and universities, it sponsors summer study for high school teachers, it provides undergraduate and graduate grants and fellowships, it helps schools and colleges obtain laboratory equipment, it provides teaching aids for high school classrooms, it supports projects in educational television.

These are a few of the things we take pride in doing — not as philanthropy — but as an investment in you and thousands like you who are our partners in progress.

Progress Is Our Most Important Product

We have for a moment recalled the past, but too soon we are forced to forget the already blurring memories and walk into the future.*
